“ Sledding on the Mueller farm with Lyal pulling us behind a tractor, 5 Do's and a Don't “concerts” (he sang Rawhide), all the school events with the kids, seeing him several times a week at K&H always with a smile and a ‘Hi Hon!’
Thank you, Lyal, for a lifetime of happy memories and being a constant role model.

“ Lyal, was a good friend. He loved the Lord.
He was a quiet man and a good listener.
His last breath on earth was his first breath in Jesus arms - You lucky man.
I will always remember you.
Your Friend, Connie Bantz
