“ Sharon had a very full life, When I meet her she was in high school & was enjoying her teenage years, she belonged to a Group called the White Tornadoes, who marched and performed with Wooden Rifles, they performed in many parades, as she got older she married & had a son Sean, who was the love of her life & her Mothers life.

They lived in Tulsa, OK, where Sharon worked at a Bank & Sean went to school at Holland Hall & on to Carnegie Mellon College. Sean met his Wife Rebecca at College & they had a Son, David, and Sharon loved to visit her Grandson. Sean & Rebecca as often as she could, as they live in Oregon.

After Sean graduated, Sharon & her Mom moved back to Watseka, where she meet her Dear Friend Lea and they went to KCC together & became Nurses (LPN), she is wearing her Nurses Pin in the picture.

Then Lea & Sharon both moved to Savoy, IL, (near Champaign), Lea lived with her family and Sharon moved into a Sr. Living Home. And went about her way, shopping and going places with her new acquaintances from her Sr. Home, she was very involved at the Home, with activities, parties & etc.

As her Sister-in-law, she was more like a Sister, as we didn't always agree on everything, but we agreed to disagree & that was fine.

Her Brother Ron, like a brother would do, always teased her and gave her a hard time, but in his own Loving Way & she would tease him back. They loved each other very much.

We will miss her, rest in peace Sharon, your are with God & the angels.

Love you, Ron & Carol
